

Grow talent & capacity with UTSA students

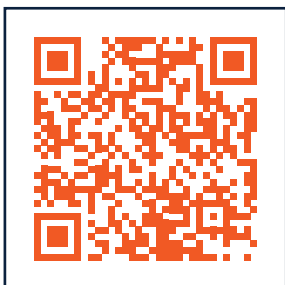

Students at The University of Texas at San Antonio can help you fulfill organizational needs and build your talent pipeline while you help them grow professional skills and experience. UTSA offers a range of opportunities for industry to leverage the talents of our Roadrunner community.

Student Internships

Work with the University Career Center to create internships that connect your organization with students of all majors and classifications.

University Career Center →

Community-Based Work

Become a community host site for highly-motivated students who want to engage with the San Antonio Community through a university-funded work study program.

Rowdy Corps Program →

Project-Based Learning Experiences

Engage with a diverse team of student consultants who can help your organization tackle and overcome a current challenge.

UTSA's Project Ecosystem →

