

BOOTS ON VETS!

On Friday November 9th, let's kick off Veteran's Day weekend by bringing awareness to the diversity of San Antonio's veteran community.

This is a call for veterans to wear their old active duty boots (or similar combat boots) on 11/09/18, the Friday before Marines Corps birthday and Veteran's Day

Veterans, wear your boots with ANY and EVERY attire you would normally wear that day. Yes, wear them to work!

- ◆ Have a shift waiting tables in a restaurant or tending bar? WEAR YOUR BOOTS!
- ◆ Wearing a suit or a dress for an important meeting? WEAR YOUR BOOTS!
- ◆ Casual Friday at your job? WEAR YOUR BOOTS!
- ◆ Is Friday your day off? WEAR YOUR BOOTS!

Share your day with us!

Lend a helping hand, insightful thought, or encouraging words to your fellow veterans

Take pictures of yourself in your civilian clothes with your boots and with other vets you encounter. Share your photos on social media with hashtag #bootsonvets. We ask that you also share something about your reintegration and post service life that you think would be helpful to other veterans. Share:

- ◆ Your favorite place to interact with other veterans, be it a support group, gym, post, or a bar.
- ◆ Share a resource or activity that helped you acclimate to civilian life.
